Dear Friends & Customers:

Now that we have entered another year, we here in The Hardware Store in Belle Glade, are making plans to render even better service than we have in past years. We have combed the American markets for the finest to be had in modern and up to the minute hardware and we believe we have nearly every item you'll be needing during this new year.

Whenever you think of hardware during the new year just think of our store and the courteous service we give. If you'll visit as we'll do everything in our power to make you feel at home—and, too, we'll give you value received for every dollar you spend here.

Naturally, we are grateful for a splendid year's business in 1939. It is our hope that we may render a service that will make our 1940 Sincerely:

A POLITICAL ADVERTISING POLICY

With the advent of the 1940 political campaign, The News takes this means of making public its adver-tising policies covering campaign publicity. This statement is made for the information and guidance of candidates, their friends, supporters and other representatives in their dealings with The News.

Campaign advertising will be charged at the regular rate of 50 cents per column inch and all such advertising will be market "political advertising." No free publicity will be promised in connection with display advertising. Advertising published a reading nature will be charged for at the rate of 7 1.2 cents per line, light face, or 10 cents per line black face, and will be marked. "advertisement" as pequired by the postal laws and regulations.

All political advertising or printing must be paid for in advance, as we are still holding the bag on two candidates during the last election. There will be no exceptions to this rule.

The News reserves the right to determine the activities of individual candidates which shall be regarded as news insofar, as this paper is concerned, and to handle that news as the publisher so de-

Political advertisements must meet the same re-quirements as other advertising as to ethical standards and responsibility. Where subject mat-ter is of a controversial nature, names of persons or organizations responsible is a part of the ad-vertisement and must be published therein.

All candidates will be on exactly the same basis in carrying out these policies, which experience has proven are fair and equitable to all candidates and the newspaper.
